We Are on a Mission

Our customers see and experience us as an internationally leading technology group with focus on the innovative and industrial processing of wires and other flexible materials. We aim for global leadership in the areas of technology, quality, and service. The Schleuniger Group is a unit of the publicly listed Komax Group.

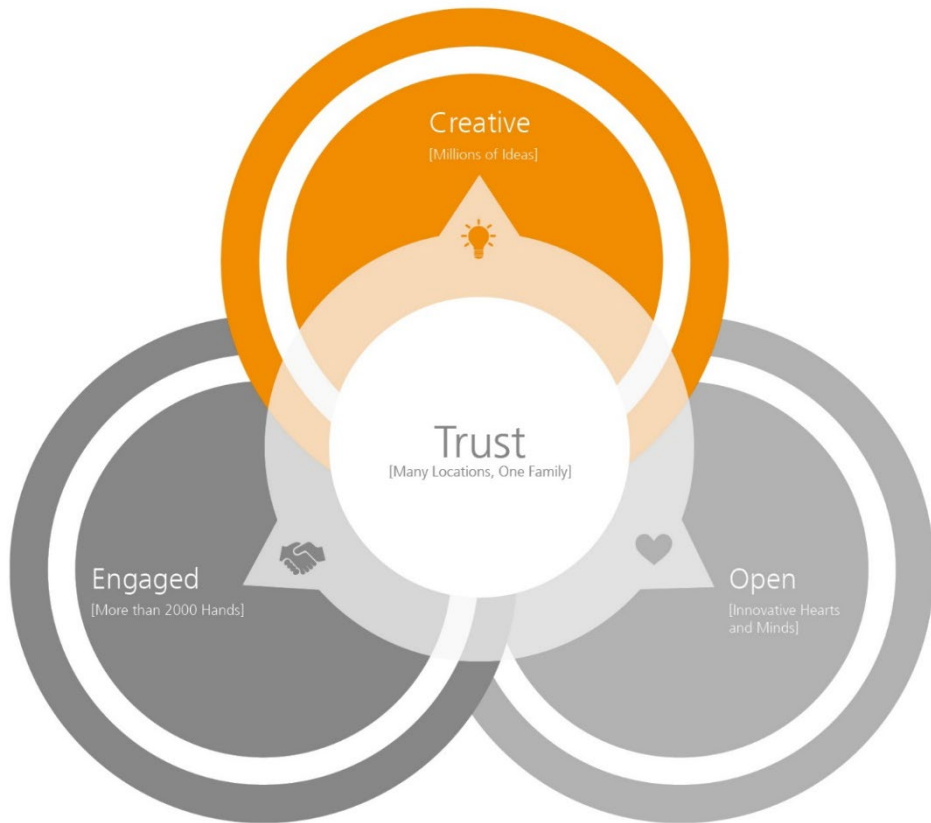

OUR VISION

We believe in a world without technical limits, so we give manufacturers the power to create the most flawless products possible.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to be the most precise and best in everything we do. We provide the most complete and most productive solutions to our industry and set the standard worldwide for exceptional service and customer orientation. We never stop innovating and improving in every area of our business, and we serve as strategic partners to our customers.

One Family

OUR VALUES

Commitment, creativity, openness and trust. These are our shared values. At Schleuniger we focus on creative ideas, personal commitment and unrestricted openness – towards people of all cultures, new technologies and solutions.

Thanks to a respectful corporate culture that puts people first, Schleuniger is a successful and attractive employer that challenges and encourages its employees.

We owe our success to the solidarity we live and to our passion for innovation, quality and progress.

To Be Sustainable

RESPONSIBLE

Schleuniger is fully aware of its responsibility to its employees, society and the environment. Responsible and sustainable behavior has been the basic principle of our actions for years.

- Reduction of CO₂ emissions
- Water and energy savings thanks to innovative production processes as well as resource-saving use of building structures.
- High-quality and durable products
- Openness, honesty and respect are our core values towards employees.
